

GET PAID TO LEARN BUSINESS/ENTREPRENEUR TRAINING

In Agriculture and Food

Get started in a new path forward with paid business and entrepreneurship training program with the Madison Area's premier urban farmers.

If selected, you'll learn the knowledge, skills and tools you need to become a part of the urban agriculture and food production movement that is exploding across the United States. Not only will you get the agriculture skills, but also the business skills needed for success. You provide the will to succeed.

This program is for ambitious individuals who want to take control of their destiny and make a positive difference!
